Biography

Asia has been committed to growing her legal expertise and using her voice to inspire change. She is a passionate associate attorney, focusing her practice on insurance and transportation cases. She earned her J.D. from the University of Kentucky College of Law, during which time she was elected to serve as the Black Law Students Association 1L Representative, President, and Treasurer. She was a member of the Trial Advocacy Board and Black Law Student Association Trial Team, where she competed in regional and national competitions and was a voice for graduate students all over the University of Kentucky campus by serving as Graduate at-Large Senator. Prior to joining the firm in 2021, Asia worked at a social security disability law firm, assisting individuals with obtaining their social security, Medicare, and Medicaid benefits. She later worked as a summer associate for Lewis Wagner in 2020.
