Biography

Brandon is an associate in Lewis Wagner & Trimble's Transportation Litigation Group where he concentrates his practice in Transportation and Auto & TNC Liability. As a lifelong Hoosier, Brandon first earned his B.A. in Psychology and Criminal Justice alongside minors in Law & Public Policy and History from Indiana University in 2023 and then went on to earn his J.D. from the Indiana University Maurer School of Law in 2026. While in law school, he served as the Executive Judge Coordinator for the Sherman Minton Executive Advocacy Board and as Chair of the 3L Pledge Campaign Committee, developing—and demonstrating—his tireless work ethic and steadfast commitment to service. Brandon also worked with the Intellectual Property Law Clinic at Maurer where he helped secure trademarks and pursue takedowns of infringing marks for individuals and small businesses, an experience that cultivated his passion for developing opportunities for growing businesses. Outside of his work, Brandon enjoys watching all things Indiana University athletics, trying new recipes, and indulging in his passion for cars.
