Biography

Since 2019, Matthew has been an integral part of Lewis Wagner's business services group. He maintains a dedicated focus in the areas of medical malpractice defense litigation, professional licensure and disciplinary litigation, and business litigation matters. Leveraging years of experience representing healthcare providers in several areas of medical malpractice defense, including suits involving wrongful death, class actions, and complex litigation, Matthew is insightful and committed to every client. Outside of the office, he enjoys spending time with family and raising his two dogs. He is also an avid poker player and enjoys delving into American and military history.
