Biography

Millicent Woodland is a seasoned litigator with over 18 years of experience representing business owners and insurance companies in risk mitigation. As Senior Counsel for Lewis Wagner's transportation practice, Millicent handles every stage of the litigation process from pre-investigation to trial. She particularly excels in the courtroom, where her passion for trial advocacy shines as she crafts persuasive arguments and develops compelling narratives for the jury.

Having recently relocated to Indianapolis from Oklahoma City, Millicent spends much of her free time exploring the city. Outside of work, Millicent loves traveling, soaking up sunny weather, practicing yoga, reading, or listening to the latest podcasts.
