Biography

Before pursuing a legal career, Nick earned a degree in political science from Indiana University and gained early experience as a data intern in Washington, D.C. He went on to earn his J.D. from Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law in 2023, where he served as a judicial extern to the Honorable James P. Hanlon of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Indiana.

Nick began his legal career at a civil litigation firm before joining Lewis Wagner & Trimble. He now represents clients across a range of practice areas, including product liability and toxic tort litigation, with a focus on delivering strategic, client-centered solutions.

Outside the office, Nick enjoys spending time with family and friends, following sports, and relaxing at the lake.
