Biography

Rick provides clients with skilled and responsive representation in the areas of fire loss, insurance, construction, product liability, and commercial litigation. For more than 30 years, he has represented clients in courts of almost every Indiana county, as well as the Indiana appellate courts, and the Seventh Circuit federal courts. Rick also serves clients as a registered mediator across all areas of his practice.

Dedicated to his practice and advancing the legal field, Rick lends his expertise as co-author of an electronic insurance law newsletter and as a frequent author and lecturer on insurance law and trial tactics. Rick is a former collegiate baseball player, and enjoys playing softball, following his favorite sports teams, studying the Civil War, and traveling.
