

Sarah Ullrich

sullrich@lewiswagner.com

Tel: 317.318.0643

Legal Assistant:

Tel: |

Sarah emphasizes building genuine client relationships through clear communication and empathy, ensuring every concern is handled with care and transparency. Her focus on achieving meaningful outcomes, coupled with a keen attention to detail, simplifies processes and delivers a seamless, positive experience. Sarah is committed to being accessible and consistently provides thoughtful, timely responses to client questions and concerns.

Education and Bar Admissions

- Indiana University Indianapolis, 2015
 - Paralegal Certification
- Indiana University Indianapolis, B.S., 2019
 - Criminal Justice
- Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law, J.D., Expected Graduation 2028

Practice Areas

Biography

Sarah serves Lewis Wagner’s legal teams through her expert paralegal support, focusing primarily on alternative dispute resolution, estate planning, and business, estate, and trust litigation. With nearly a decade of experience, Sarah understands how important an effective and efficient legal team can be when handling sensitive and important matters.

An Indianapolis native, Sarah completed her Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice from Indiana University Indianapolis in 2016. While in college, she earned a Paralegal Certificate, marking the beginning of her legal career. Now, Sarah is advancing her journey by pursuing her J.D. at the Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law. When she’s not working or studying, Sarah enjoys spending time at the basketball gym with her family, working on home improvement projects, and searching for her next favorite local restaurant.

Accolades, Affiliations and Activities

- Indiana University Indianapolis Paralegal Advisory Board
- IndyBar and Coalition for Homelessness Intervention and Prevention (CHIP) Handbook of Help Project