Biography

Sonia Das Sturm is Senior Counsel at Lewis Wagner LLP, where she focuses on defending clients in asbestos-related and mass tort cases. With over two decades of experience, Sonia has built a robust practice in Indiana's mass tort litigation and workers' compensation matters. She first joined Lewis Wagner as a law clerk in 1999, eventually becoming an associate and partner, managing the firm's asbestos, silica, and coal tar pitch mass tort dockets. Sonia also handled general insurance defense, negligence claims, appellate practice, and environmental insurance coverage litigation. After leaving the firm in 2013, Sonia spent the next decade representing employers through insurance companies and third-party administrators in all aspects of workers' compensation cases, including mediation and appeals to Indiana's highest courts. In 2024, she returned to Lewis Wagner, bringing her extensive experience and passion for client advocacy back to where her career began. Outside the office, Sonia enjoys cooking, tennis, fishing, kayaking, and camping.
